

“Movie” / M. Dukurs

you make me feel like we're in a movie and i know i have to make my move can you feel the groove of my heartbeat you're all that i need you're all and i wont forget this moment we had which felt like a movie
and i

i don't want to loose you but i will always have this moment which felt like a movie, and i

you make my birds fly much higher i wanna be a better person, not a liar which i never was i'm humble and truth is all that you hear from me cause you're all and i wont forget

if there is any chance that this will last forever if there is any chance that you and me together dance in a crowded place like no one's even watching then under the orange tree i will kiss you like i don't care
