

“You” / M. Dukurs

you
make me live again
you
never let me go

cause you
accept me for who i am
and you
make my heart overflow

and that's why
i'll never let you go babe
and that's why
i will never let you go babe

..
you give me space
between the lines
you give me hope
that i can be enough

for someone that beautiful that you are today
and i'll say it every day
if you stay by my side

and i know you will cause you love like i do you

and in your loving embrace, i found my strength through all the trials, you stayed with me you are the wind below my wings of all the blessings in my life, you are my sunshine
