

“Thousand Seas” / M. Dukurs, E. Krūmiņš

so many times
i've lost on you
but now i found
another way

all i ever wanted
was you
so we found a way through

and we can be together
we can be together
again

..
no one knows
what we've been through it's between you and me we're stronger than thousand seas

when we're together
i'm still losing
sight of shore
like the first time

how many times
i have to apologise
for just being me
people never change
